

Polly & Josh

Washtenaw County

Dedication, love and support

Polly and Josh are relative caregivers who have placement of their niece and two nephews. The couple have been a constant source of love and support for their niece and nephews for many years, even prior to the children coming into care. Polly and Josh go above and beyond to care for the children and work to ensure that their needs are always met. The family's foster care worker, shares that "Polly and Josh are wonderful advocates for the children." The couple has advocated for therapy and tutoring services for the children. The family also works hard to improve the children's development. Because of Polly and Josh's consistent efforts the children have improved significantly and are reaching appropriate milestones.

Polly and Josh are committed to working toward the goal of reunifying the children with their biological family. The couple transport the children to visits with their birth parents twice a week without complaint. Polly and Josh's niece and nephews are thriving because of the commitment, advocacy, and continued determination to provide them with a safe, stable and loving home. The couple provide exceptional care and support for their niece and nephews and more than deserve this recognition as an outstanding foster family.
